October 23, 2018

Mosheim, Tenn. – On Monday, October 15th, Apex Bank opened its Mosheim location, becoming the only bank to serve and meet the banking needs of this community. Apex Bank Mosheim becomes the sixth Apex Bank in the area after the opening of Bulls Gap in mid-September.

“We are proud to open our fifth Greene County office and Apex’s sixth office in the East Tennessee region,” said Matt Synowiez, East Tennessee Apex Bank President. “By adding these additional offices, our teams will become more efficient in serving our neighbors in Mosheim and Bulls Gap, while offering our Greene County customers additional locations for added services.”

Apex Bank actively looks to partner with the community through philanthropic work, while creating local jobs and promoting economic stability. The bank prides itself of its dedication to the area and has taken steps to expand its efforts into the Mosheim and Bulls Gap communities.

“Serving our community is our priority and we are excited to offer banking services to our Mosheim neighbors and friends,” said Lance McKinney, Mosheim office manager.

The Mosheim office is located at 17 N. Spring Street and will operate Monday through Thursday 8:30 AM-5:00 PM and Friday 8:00 AM-6:00 PM.

“We have had a great first week at our new office and enjoyed meeting our neighbors here in Mosheim,” said McKinney. “We look forward to greeting many others in the coming days.”

Apex Bank’s presence in Greene County has grown at a staggering rate in the last two years, beginning with the acquisition of American Patriot Bank in December of 2016.
