Apex Bank Continues to Invest in Greene County and Opens Newly Remodeled Andrew Johnson Highway Office

January 2, 2019

Greeneville, Tenn. – Apex Bank relocated its Andrew Johnson Highway office on Monday, December 17th. The newly remodeled office is located at 3015 East Andrew Johnson Highway, next to the bank's original location.

"Apex Bank is proud to announce the opening of our fifth location in Greene County and sixth in the area," said Gary Shelton, Andrew Johnson Highway office manager. "Our new office has a modern look and we have invested in new technologies that have enabled us to serve our customers more efficiently."

The new Andrew Johnson Highway location operates Monday through Thursday 8:30 AM – 5:00 PM, Friday 8:00 AM – 6:00 PM and Saturday drive-thru hours of 9:00 AM – 12:00 PM.

"We believe in customer service and community involvement, and I am proud to be a part of the professional team that is ready to simplify your banking needs," said Shelton. "We invite our neighbors to visit us at one of our convenient locations. At Apex Bank, exceeding customer expectations is our goal."

With $560 million in assets, Apex Bank currently operates 15 retail offices throughout Tennessee in addition to its Knoxville-based national mortgage servicing center. Apex Bank's presence in Greene County has grown at a staggering rate in the last two years, beginning with the acquisition of American Patriot Bank in December of 2016. Throughout this period, the bank's retail presence in Greene County has increased to over $100 million. Apex Bank has been ranked number one in the state of Tennessee and second in the nation by the Independent Community Bankers Association's (ICBA) Top Performing Banks industry analysis for a second consecutive year. Additionally, Banks Street Partners ranks Apex Bank as the top performing bank in net interest margins and return on average equity in the state of Tennessee.
